To help protect you from fraud and scams, you'll no longer be able to send Zelle® payments to recipients originating from social media – such as social media marketplaces or messaging apps

Due to the significant rise in social media scams and to help protect your account, we'll be updating our policies on March 23, 2025, limiting your ability to send Zelle® payments identified as originating from contact through social media. As a result, we may:

- Request details about your payment's purpose and how you made contact with the recipient
- Block or decline payments identified as originating from contact through social media
- Decline payments, restrict your use of Zelle® through Chase or take other actions as described in your account agreement if you do not respond truthfully to questions we ask

The updates to the policy become effective March 23, 2025, and will be outlined in Section 2 of the Zelle® Service Agreement, which may appear as a separate agreement or as an Addendum to the Digital Services Agreement. You can review the new agreements beginning January 23, 2025. Here's how to access them:

- On chase.com, log in to your account, click the Main Menu, then select "Agreements & disclosures."
- On the Chase Mobile® app, go to "Legal information" in Profile & Settings or at the bottom of the home page, then "Legal agreements and disclosures."

If you have questions, please call the number on this statement.

Para ayudar a protegerle del fraude y las estafas, ya no podrá enviar pagos de Zelle® a destinatarios que se originen en medios sociales, tales como los mercados de redes sociales o las aplicaciones de mensajería

Debido al aumento significativo de las estafas en los medios sociales y para ayudar a proteger su cuenta, actualizaremos nuestras políticas el 23 de marzo de 2025, lo que limita su capacidad para enviar pagos de Zelle® identificados como originados por el contacto a través de las redes sociales. Como resultado, podemos:

- Solicitar detalles sobre el propósito de su pago y cómo se puso en contacto con el destinatario
- Bloquear o rechazar los pagos identificados como originados por el contacto a través de las redes sociales
- Rechazar los pagos, restringir el uso de Zelle® a través de Chase o tomar otras medidas según se describe en su acuerdo de cuenta si no responde con veracidad a las preguntas que hacemos

Las actualizaciones de la política entran en vigor el 23 de marzo de 2025 y se describirán en la Sección 2 del Acuerdo de Servicio de Zelle®, que puede aparecer como un acuerdo independiente o como un Apéndice al Acuerdo de Servicios Digitales. Puede revisar los nuevos acuerdos a partir del 23 de enero de 2025. Así es cómo se accede a ellos:

- En chase.com, inicie sesión en su cuenta, haga clic en el menú principal, luego seleccione "Acuerdos y declaraciones".
- En la aplicación Chase Mobile®, vaya a "Información legal" en Perfil y configuración o en la parte inferior de la página de inicio, luego "Acuerdos legales y declaraciones".

Si tiene alguna pregunta, llámenos al número que aparece en este estado de cuenta.

Due to the significant rise in social media scams and to help protect your account, we'll be updating our policies on March 23, 2025, limiting your ability to send Zelle® payments identified as originating from contact through social media. As a result, we may:

- Request details about your payment's purpose and how you made contact with the recipient.
- Block or decline payments identified as originating from contact through social media.
- Decline payments, restrict your use of Zelle® through Chase or take other actions as described in your account agreement.

The updates to the policy become effective March 23, 2025, and will be outlined in Section 2 of the Zelle® Service Agreement, which may appear as a separate agreement or as an Addendum to the Digital Services Agreement. You can review the new agreements beginning January 23, 2025. Here's how to access them:

- On chase.com/business, log in to your account, click the Main Menu, then select "Agreements & disclosures."

FINANCE CHARGES: Although the Bank uses the Daily Balance method to calculate the finance charge on your Moneyline/Overdraft Protection account (the term "ODP" or "OD" refers to Overdraft Protection), the Bank discloses the Average Daily Balance on the periodic statement as an easier method for you to calculate the finance charge. The finance charge begins to accrue on the date advances and other debits are posted to your account and will continue until the balance has been paid in full. To compute the finance charge, multiply the Average Daily Balance times the Days in Period times the Daily Periodic Rate (as listed in the Account Summary section on the front of the statement). The Average Daily Balance is calculated by adding the balance for each day of the billing cycle, then dividing the total balance by the number of Days in the Billing Cycle. The daily balance is the balance for the day after advances have been added and payments or credits have been subtracted plus or minus any other adjustments that might have occurred that day. There is no grace period during which no finance charge accrues. Finance charge adjustments are included in your total finance charge.
